Im afraid of the dark
So he turns on the light
How does he know whats in my head?
Why I cry, when it rains
He doesnt make me explain
He just dries me off and puts me to bed

Chorus:

But it feels good
Cause he knows me by heart
And it feels right
Don't want it to stop
He knows what I'm like and he knows what I'm not
He knows everything about me
He knows everything about me
He knows me by heart

And that scar, on my arm
He guessed where I got it from What I love and what I just cant stand
And he waits, when I'm late
Doesn't try to set me straight
He takes me just the way I am

Chorus:

But it feels good
Cause he knows me by heart
And it feels right
Don't want it to stop
He knows what I'm like and he knows what I'm not
He knows everything about me

He knows everything about me
He knows me by heart

He sees all
Don't know how he sees through
He sees my black and white
He sees my black and blue
I really dont know why
I dont have a clue
But who he thinks I am

is who I am its true

He sees all
he sees through sees my black and my blue
Don't know why its true

Chorus:
But it feels good
Cause he knows me by heart
And it feels right
Dont want it to stop
He knows me by heart 3X
