[Chorus]

Oh can someone tell me why
I cry
'Cus these tears down my face
Don't signify life
Oh can someone tell me why
I try
When I'm the only one to fail
I swear the grass is greener on the other side

[Verse]

This life is such a bitter-sweet symphony
Another quick epiphany
I feel like I'm the new kid
There's no room for me
In this world
Deceit
When I Speak Truthfully
And everyone around me live their life
Unfruitfully
Is that the finish line I can see
And the other side there
Waiting on me
My leg goes weak
My brain goes a fortnight
Unable physically and mentally

[Pre Chorus]

All of the things that I've done in my life
Can someone tell me what I must do to make it right
I know I must run
I know I must run
But I stand tall ready to fight
X2

[Chorus]

Oh can someone tell me why
I cry

'Cus these tears down my face
Don't signify life
Oh can someone tell me why
I try
When I'm the only one to fail
I swear the grass is greener on the other side

On the other side
On the other side
On the other S-i-ide
On the other side

[Verse]

If we were to compare
The colour of the grass
It's greener in my past
You can't kill the roots
That why the nightmare won't pass
And I'm sailing this ship without a mast
And I need to get to the other side fast

[Pre Chorus]

All of the things that I've done in my life
Can someone tell me what I must do to make it right
I know I must run
I know I must run
But I stand tall ready to fight
X2

[Chorus]

Oh can someone tell me why
I cry
'Cus these tears down my face
Don't signify life
Oh can someone tell me why
I try
When I'm the only one to fail
I swear the grass is greener on the other side

[Bridge]

On the other si-i-i-i-ide
They laugh but not cry-y-y-y-y
One day I'll make it there
Oh I'll make it there

[Chorus]

Oh can someone tell me why
I Laugh
With a smile on my face
That signify's life
Oh can someone tell me why
I don't cry
When I've made it to the other side
The grass is greener on the other side

On the other side
On the other side
On the other S-i-ide
On the other side
