verse 1

Decisions must be made
and now i have a choice,
i need your wisdom Lord
i need to hear your voice im facing challenges and the walls are closing in.
I'm crying out to you, my one true,
faithful friend.

chorus

hear my prayer oh lord
i need you in my life
i cry to you
oh, lord.
please lead me to the light
show me the way
oh lord
and cleanse me from my sin
i need you
i need you once again
i need you

i know you are the one that guides me day by day the answer's found in you you're the truth, the life, the way.
When others seem to fail,
and troubles all around Lord, you're always standing there the one true hope i found.

i cry to you

i need you
i need you once again
