Hey

Well you work and you slave
And you spend all day in your thankless job
Then you jump in your Ford
Door to door with a homebound mob
Then you pull in the drive and you hit the chair
And the one you love is waitin' there

Hey, that's what it's all about
Hey, this is the life I couldn't live without
No, I couldn't live without
It's a moment frozen there in time
When the reasons all begin to rhyme
Where loves a little bigger and you finally start figurin'
out
That's what it's all about

When they won't go to bed
And do what you said or they eat their food
They cry, and they fuss and you can't cuss
'Cause they'll say it to Your tired, numb, stressed and your mad
She smiles and says "I love you dad"

Hey, that's what it's all about
Hey, this is the life I couldn't live without
No, I couldn't live without
It's a moment frozen there in time
When the reasons all begin to rhyme
Where loves a little bigger and you finally start figurin'
That's what it's all about

Hey, that's what it's all about
Hey, this is the life I couldn't live without
No, I couldn't live without
It's a moment frozen there in time
When the reasons all begin to rhyme
Where loves a little bigger and you finally start figurin'
That's what it's all about

Hey, that's what it's all about
The life I couldn't live without
Hey, that's what it's all about

Hey, that's what it's all about
Hey, that's what it's all about
