Love conquers all and someday it'll conquer you
There's nothin' finer than fallin' all in it
When love is true
But once it goes out and break your heart
It still ain't history
When love dies it don't rest in peace

You can lock your doors and windows
To keep the pain at bay
Yesterday may be dead and gone
But the past won't go away
Its waitin' right around every corner
With a heartache you don't need
When love dies it don't rest in peace

Oh when love dies
You can't bury those memories
Oh when love dies
It disappears but it never leaves
When love dies it don't rest in peace

How does love die then come back?
(Woo)
A ghost rattlin' chains
It keeps on hauntin' my broken heart
(Woo)
Drivin' me insane
I hear it whisper my name in the night
Just like it still lives and breathes
When love dies it don't rest in peace

Oh when love dies
(Die)
You can't bury those memories
Oh when love dies
(Die)
It disappears but it never leaves
When love dies it don't rest in peace
When love dies it don't rest in peace

When love dies
When love dies

When love dies it don't rest in peace
When love dies
When love dies
When love dies it don't rest in peace
When love dies
When love dies
When love dies
