(Ring me up now Come on now, quit bullshittin) [Chorus - Brother Ali] - 2X Sunset never seemed so long Five and the sky's still goin strong Jewel and the crown keep holdin on Never let it go 'til it's all gone [Verse 1 - Brother Ali] I glide across the surface with my head held high Shoulders pushed back, I'm convinced I'll never die Got a squint to my eye like I can't take the world in Too much beauty to behold by one person Wear the sky around my shoulder like a tailor made cloak Create or decorated with my never fadin hopes My same old skin like the robe of a King Gold, platinum bling happen to grow from my chin Sun keeps kissin my cheek as if it has to And the Earth under my feet become a castle Any word I endeavor to speak, I command you Die grammar plan to make the Devil unhand you Should the elements change and it ever rain Drops fall around me, my garment is never stained This is what God had in mind for me Shine like the stars in the sky just align for me [Chorus] [Verse 2 - Brother Ali] There's a certain type of glow that emanates Off the authentic that a fake could never imitate He thought his outstretched hand might conceal his hate Never knew his eyes where the windows to his real estate I'll gladly be the mirror that you hate To crush every debate, why the fuck you're never great You'll still be the same irrelevant bitch In the same predicament if I never existed, shit My shadow isn't why it's cold where you at My goals and advancements ain't what's holdin you back, bitch You're illest enemy is in the looking glass But you really couldn't stand lookin at your crooked ass So you workin every single angle Thinkin you'd be the man if I wasn't here to compare to My advice to you is to do the fuck you And if you ain't willin my dude, then fuck you [Chorus] (Instrumental for 22 seconds) [Chorus] "Gone" - 3X
