[Intro] I. Am the magnificent. Check it out [Verse One]
The magnificent, born gloriousness South paw raw, ghetto lawlessness I ain't never hypothetical or "for instance" What I'm givin' you is livin' proof that God exists Santa Claus killer, all of y'all get gifts Get crossed off my list when the sawed off kicks Ain't no more bitch shit Pawns get flipped quick On some Fresh game of chess on the park benches I kindly invite y'all to mind y'all business Before I close down the castle and the draw bridge lift I clown and kick to get a spot like this My pocket knife twist through your heart like this Vocals blastin' The soul impassioned Clothes won't be clashin' I'm so old fashion Cold blooded assassin Microphone graspin' Dealin' with your rappers in an orderly fashion They lean back baskin' in the gleam of the Brother I'm Superfly T-N-T motherfucker Who God bless, let no man curse Your new-new shit ain't fuckin' with my old ass verse I flash on your foolish like a Kodak burst And paint a picture with your weaknesses I know that hurts Don't you know the prophet feed the poor man first? Need to fix your own plate daddy, your hands work The higher the monkey climbs the more he show his asshole One for the freestyle, two for the cash flow I am the magnificent [Chorus: x2] We sent to get down The magnificent Knees bend and heads bow The magnificent We step through your town The magnificent Please bet that my style is magnificent
