bam bam

i wanted the fire of the city and the safety of home i decided that i would still love me when my youth is gone i've many things in my mind oh so many kinds but may you're voice be the one that i easily recognize

what i wanted
was too big a dream
but i got you
and i have everything wherever you say i say go and we run all the way if you wanna stop let me know i will stay where you will stay my heart is burning inside from the things that you say it's a pity what happened tonight at the coming of the day
