I wanna tell you everything, piece by piece won't you come up closer I want to, hear you breathe

I'm walking down the street I'm lost at sea but out of the crowd you smile and you're all I see you make me feel like I can get lost inside your eyes

I feel closer to the sky
When you save the day
with just a smile
just a smile

I wanna meet you someday soon 'cause I know you in my mind everything will be different when I have you right beside you can take the whole wide world with your boyish charm but even as you pull me close I won't just stay in your arms

you make me feel like I
can get lost inside your eyes
I feel closer to the sky
When you save the day
with just a smile

Well it's for you and everyone I thought I've searched the world in vain now look at me and the search is done we will never be the same not the same.

you make me feel like I

I feel closer to the sky
When you save the day

oh you make me feel like I can get lost inside your eyes
I feel closer to the sky

just a smile
