

Brotherhood Of Man

"All Or Nuthin'"

Visit "All Or Nuthin'" on MotoLyrics.com

The ceiling fan was spinning, that's the last thing that she saw
She's callin for her brother, he was tied up in the hall
And the outlaw and another man was chopped up on the wall
Somebody said, "nobody move, and nobody lift your head"
That's what he said

Shoulda remembered early on the night was hot, the air was thick
They driven out of town, there was a party in the sticks
But an older man had offered her some money for a trick
So she shouted back quite angrily, "drop dead"
She laid there on the floor, head was reelin
We never should have come, I had a feelin
Well it's all or nuthin'
Make a move, do something
Let it go, or let em have it all the way

The hourglass was empty and the blood ran down the wall
Adrenaline had peaked as two shots fired in the hall
She jumped up to her feet in time to see the body fall
And she took one in the chest and hit the floor
Her brother stood above her disbeliefin
Oh we never should have come, I had a feelin
Well it's all or nuthin'
Make a move, do something
Let it go, or let em have it all the way
Well it's all or nuthin'
Make a move, do something
Let it go, or let em have it all the way

Visit Brotherhood Of Man page on MotoLyrics.com, to get more lyrics and videos.