Give this message to your heart read my letter one more time

Don't let me tear our world apart please don't read between the lines

Give this message to your heart

I don't know what made me lie to you
Most of all I just don't know why I cheated on you

Give me the chance that I'd give you

Give this message to your heart

[mandolin]

It's hard to ask you to forgive

For you have more than done your part

But if you don't then I can't live

Give this message to your heart
