everything makes me think about sex everything makes me feel sick it's a personal flaw i guess i'm a shy boy but was catholic everybody says you've got to let it all out
everybody says you've got to let it all out but how can i admit? the things i really think about..
everything makes me feel stressed
it's a personal flaw i guess i have visions of everyone undressed

but how can i admit? sex is all i think about everything makes me think about sex everything makes me feel tense its effecting my entire vision its effecting my concentration
everybody says you've got to let it all out but how can i admit? the only thing i think about is sex sex.
