Look past the wires
Look past the smokescreen
Look past the pretenses you use

What you say
What you do
Its not the same
Its night and day, and I dont believe you

Id give you anything that you want
for a connection to the real you
(id give you anything that you want)
youre just a simulation

what you think its up ___ true human being

Look past the guile
Look past dimensions
Look for the enigmatic truth

What you say
What you do
Its not the same

Its night and day I dont believe you

Id give you anything that you want
(Id give you anything that you want)
For a connection to the real you
(Id give you anything that you want)
Youre just a simulation

what you think
Mix up the true human being

Id give you anything that you want
(Id give you anything that you want)
For a connection to the real you
(Id give you anything that you want)
Youre just a simulation

What you think,
Mix up the truth
