when i was only thirteen i got connected

didn't know where to go i saw your name on a cracker? screen waiting for ea winter games to load file said you were sweedish i didn't get it

i didn't think at all i found the number to your bbs under your alias thought i'd make the call paging system operator

guess i started to need some kind of guidance wasn't getting a hold somone who could teach me to fake the sound of quarters in the telephone i finally started to phreak i wasn't patient

it took an hour or two i'd hit the P and the Enter key causing the screen to freeze i waited there for you

paging system...

operator

my initial results

were disapointing

i didn't get a reply powered down and went to sleep vowing i would try again tomorrow nite must have waited a week

i'm more sucessful

i finally spoke to you took a while to realize you were some normal guy and you were thirteen too
