"A Place To Hide"

I can't hide my pain and sorrow
On this road that I've been runnin
And I'm runnin, runnin out of time

I ain't got to worry about nothin
Cuz I finally found a place to hide

Well my momma always told me
She said son, you gonna be a star
Well my momma always warned me
She said you better not go to far

I got my gun in my hand and I don't Care if I die, I said the rain don't come
With the southern sun when your robbin
Every bank in sight
I ain't got to worry
About nothin cuz finally
Found a place to hide
Place to hide
