Barclay James Harvest
"He Said Love"

There once was a man
Who was born to be king
He changed all our lives
And he made my heart sing

He turned water into wine
And called his fishermen
He cured the sick, the lame could walk
The blind could see again

He told us of the shepherds
And the flowers in the field
The story of the farmer's seed
And the harvest it would yield

He told us of two houses
And the man who lost his son
Of two men in the temple
And the Good Samaritan

Love, only love's gonna take you higher
(Love)
Love, only love's gonna carry you home
(Love)

He healed the soldier's servant
He calmed the raging sea
He shared five loaves and two small fish
And five thousand he did feed

He told the rich men share your wealth
He cured the ten sick men
He raised a friend called Lazarus
And made him whole again

He said, "Love, only love's gonna take you higher"
(Love)
Love, only love's gonna carry you home
(Love)

He taught the people how to pray
The children he did bless

And Mary came with perfume
Before his feet she wept

He gave us bread, His body
He gave us wine, His blood
He asked us all to live in peace
And nothing do but good

Now one friend did betray him
Another did deny
With arms outstretched he died
So all of mankind could survive

There once was a man
Who was born to be king
He'll change all your lives
If you'll just let him in

He said, "Love, only love's gonna take you higher"
(Love)
He said, "Love, only love's gonna carry you home"
(Love)

Love and understanding carries you home
Love, only love's gonna take you higher
(Love, higher and higher)
He said, "Love, only love's gonna carry you home"
(Love, only love's gonna carry you home)

Love, only love's gonna take you higher
(Love, higher and higher)
He said, "Love, only love's gonna carry you home"
(Love, only love's gonna carry you home)
