Look around and cry aloud
Seems so much is happening but I have found
When you awake the sky will shine
Even on a cloudy day

Want to be where I can see
Oh, so much is happening to you and me
Oh, will it end, will day turn black? Will we ever see things right?
Oh, and how can we make it through the night?

I'm like a train that's jumping the track
Caught up in the slide and I'll never come back
I turn around and look for a way
Nothing that I can do, nothing that I can say

What a life I was living before
Hard to see if you can't find a door
Seen the turning, know it's burning me
To be with you

I'm like a train that's jumping the track
Caught up in the slide and I'll never come back
I turn around and look for a way
Nothing that I can do, nothing that I can say

I'm like a train that's jumping the track
Caught up in the slide and I'll never come back
I turn around and look for a way
Nothing that I can do, nothing that I can say

I'm like a train that's jumping the track
Caught up in the slide and I'll never come back
I turn around and look for a way
Nothing that I can do, nothing that I can say

I'm like a train that's jumping the track
Caught up in the slide and I'll never come back
I turn around and look for a way
