(John Lees)
Back in the autumn of seventy
On the night shift at abbey road
Four young men were recording a song named
'galadriel'
For an album they'd call "once again"
The producer was norman smith
Who'd engineered with the beatles and john
Whose
Guitar was to be instrumental that day
When i came to play
I remember it well, as if it was yesterday
The day that i played
John lennon's guitar
I remember it well, as if it was yesterday
The day that i played
John lennon's guitar
Back in the aut
Umn of seventy
As i played on my borrowed guitar
How could i know the beatles would split the next day
My heroes break up and go their own way
Now autumns they come and they go
But my friends and my memories remain
And my heroes, well some of them f
Ell from the stage
But their light still remains
I remember it well, as if it was yesterday
The day that i played
John lennon's guitar
I remember it well, as if it was yesterday
The day that i played
John lennon's guitar
I remember the day
I rem
Ember the day
I remember the day
I remember the day
The day that i played
John lennon's guitar
I remember the day, as if it was yesterday

And i know that the memories will never fade
I remember the day, as if it was yesterday
The day that i played
John lennon's guitar
