Love was like a violin, playing soft and low
In your heart you held the strings, in my heart the bow Together we made soft sweet music, together we believed
In every day, in every hour our love was everything

You were like a mountain stream, flowing fast and free
You were like the autumn leaves blowing from my tree Together we made soft sweet music, together we
believed
In every day, in every hour our love was everything

First dance, you were mine, first dance we made it Last dance, last chance, you know, I know you were wrong
You know, you were wrong
You know for every feelin' there's a song

After all the leaves had gone, you were winter snow
You were so cold and far away, I had to let you go Together we made soft sweet music, together we
believed
In every day, in every hour our love was everything

First dance, you were mine, first dance we made it
Last dance, last chance, you know I know
First dance you were mine, first dance we made it
Last dance, last chance, you know I know

You were wrong
You know, you were wrong
You know for every feelin' there's a song
