Sitting upon a shelf
Trying to get back into myself
I cannot anyway
I've lost complete control of myself
Never thought that I'd find out
Just what this life is about
There'll be no doubt any more
I'll find the truth that's for sure
Sitting upon the floor
Wondering what they've put me here for
A hole in the roof my friend
Seems that I've lost control once again
Never thought that I'd find out
Just what this life is about
There'll be no doubt any more
I'll find the truth that's for sure

Sitting back on the shelf
Trying to get back into myself
Bend as you pass the door
Watch for the water here on the floor
Never thought that I'd find out
Just what this life is about
There'll be no doubt any more
I'll find the truth that's for sure
