We can't all be right
We can't all be wrong
It's a long journey
We travel on

Gypsies of the night
Riders of the storm
Though it's heartbreaking
We must go on

Wrong place, wrong face
Somewhere on the road
Keep playing and saying
Welcome to the show

Those who laugh the first
Must cry later they say
As the stage curtain
Brings on the girls

And they surely do well
For the politicians who sell them on TV today
Makes me uncertain
Of who runs the world

Wrong place, wrong face
Somewhere on the road
Keep playing and saying
Welcome to the show

My friends, all the trends that have gone
Are as one in the minds of today
With their eyes open
They can't see the signs

And the moment belongs
To the video songs leading nowhere at all
And the fools talking
The blind lead the blind

Wrong place, wrong face
Somewhere on the road

Keep playing and saying
Welcome to the show

Wrong place, wrong face
Somewhere on the road
Keep playing and saying
Welcome to the show

We started something
(We started something)
We started something
Now we can't get away from it all

We started something
(We started something)
We started something

We started something
(We started something)
