I will be in town tomorrow, would you meet me at the station there's something I would like to talk to you about it's just this thing that has been on my mind forever and I was hoping we could find a way to work it out

By the way, this is Martin, just in case you have forgotten what I sound like, ya it's been a long, long time they say that absence helps the heart grow fonder Ya well anyway, I'd like to see you, if you don't mind

The night the Blue Jays won the pennant I was sitting in the second row
I thought of you all throughout the game
And how we'd curl up on the sofa on a Friday night,
And hollar at the players like they could hear what we were saying.
Look I'm sorry if I hurt you, and I'm sorry that I left,
and as of late seems I'm sorry all the time....
Wishing wells and shooting stars have been my friends and I have come to realize that all the fault is mine.

And I am falling, into a world that I can't describe
And I am calling, 'cause I'd like to say goodbye

Hey I will be in town tomorrow, could you meet me at the station if it's just to see your face as the train pulls through I just wanna see you laugh or cry or shake your head at me

I just wanna see what twenty years has done to you See I have nothing left to loose, no time left to choose, if I should let this deadly silence carry on, twenty years or twenty days is far too long, for two people who once held each other in their arms,

And I am falling, into a world that i can't describe
and I am calling, 'cause I'd like to say goodbye

Will you take me by the hand say you'll understand or would you wanna drive me down on to my knees these are the chances I must take, and I know i must not forsake your right to do and feel just what you please

But I don't have alot of time, to write the wrongs I left behind to undo all the damage I have done So I'm calling you to ask for your forgiveness.
Is that so much to ask ..... of your son?

Ya,I will be in town tomorrow, could you meet me at the station
there's something I would like to talk to you about....
