There's a man workin' in a field
Sees the rain and it's burning
He's saying this can't be real, oh
As he sees the color of the fields turning

Far away men too busy getting rich to care
Close their eyes, let it all out into the air
Hoping nobody else would care

Look out any window, look out any open door
Look out any window
And see what's going on in the air around you

There's a man working on a boat
Pulling lines from the water
Just trying to stay afloat, oh
Filling the nets is getting harder

Far away they bend the rules so secretly
Close their eyes, let it all out into the sea
Hoping nobody else would see

Look out any window, look out any open door
Look out any window
And see what's going on in the air around you

Far away too many leaders let them get their way
Close their eyes, let it all out into the bay
Say they'll clear it up another day

Look out any window, look out any open door
Look out any window
And see what's going on in the air around you

(Look out)
Look out for the big boys
Telling you everything they're gonna do

(Look out)
Look out for the fat cat builder man
Turning this into wasteland

(Look out)
Look out for the back room boys
That say, "Smoke is gonna blow away"

(Look out)
Look out for the men say, "It's okay"
Sittin' in a building far away
