They came from the south side of the city
Where young girls grow up fast
And there pimps show them no pity
When they try to run from there past
When they try to run from
Fire for fire a burn for a burn
Leaving them with no where to turn
But still they run away
With there dreams in there nap sack
Head ling the ny way
With there faith around there necks
And clearing out there savings
Boarding that grey hound bus
And learning who they can trust
To keep them from playing with
Fire for fire a burn for a burn
Leaving them here with no where to turn
Now they arrive to the star light club
Just living there dream tonight
And dancing on stage
Making guys feel all right
But never showing there age
Never wanting to go back to fire for fire
A burn for a burn leaving them here
With no where to turn
Oh fire for fire a burn for a burn
Leaving them here with no where to turn
Oh fire for fire
