Oh mama he my guilding light
My dream come true
And yes I want to marry him
I think he gonna ask me tonight.
And that was then this is now,
And I feel like a prisoner
Ever since I said I do
I feel like a prisoner
And I can't get away from you,
So mama if he calls
Telling I'm not home
I went to the gym
I just want to be alone
Just for tonight
And I promise you mama
In the morning I'll make it right
Because I feel like a prisoner
Ever since I said I do
I feel like a prisoner
And there nothing I can do
Now mama you were right
I guess I was blinden by his light
But still there nothing I can do
Because I feel like a prisoner
Ever since I met him
I feel like a prisoner
Ever since I said I do
I feel like a prisoner
And maybe he does to
