I took your brothers harley
I swear I'll bring it back Wouldn't want him having a heart attack
I just took it for a ride Passing cars side to side
And using the sun as my guide
Oh I took your brothers harley
I swear I'll bring it back
Wouldn't want him having a heart attack
I just wanting to feel the wind on my face
And the cars keeping there space.
Now the morning light turn to night and still I'm not back and I know your brothers having a heartattack but I'm still burning up the miles and feeling the freedom on this highway and when tomorrow comes bringing today by than I'll be on my way back.
oh I took your brothers harley and I swear I'll bring it back
wouldn't want him having a heartattack
wouldn't want him having a heart attack
oh I took your brothers harley.
