If the sun should fall from the sky tomorrow
If the rain brings the tears to your eye, I would share your sorrow
But you must go if you can't take the heat, our love was fine, our love was sweet But we was walkin' on the wildside, runnin' down a one way street

Well I'm not with all those guys, who rode out in your eyes
Sometimes, ya sometimes, I can't forget your lines
But hold the train, just come today, and for your wrong, well you must pay
And we're walkin' on the wildside, runnin' down a one
way street

If I'm old my darlin' eye, I must confess That this can't be love, no I must be a man possessed When I look in your eyes so bright, your walkin' and your dress fits you just right But we were walkin' on a dead end, runnin' down a one
way street
Well their's a man, could change the things, he feels inside
If for once I, could turn and make it swallow some of my pride
But for the wrongs, oh yes we must pay, so its bye bye baby today
And we'll go walkin' on that wildside, runnin' down a one way street

Yeah when I think, of all the girls, that I have I missed Well I know I, would give them up, for just one kiss That's nn..we, we are the same kind, and to leave you baby, I have to go blind Oh when we're walkin' on the wildside, runnin' down a
one way street
Oh oh yes we are, we'll keep walkin' on that badside, runnin' down that one way street Ohh yes we will, we'll keep walkin' on that badside, runnin' down a one way street
