Grampa always gave me good advice
A fine lookin' woman is like a pair of dice
When she flashes her snake eyes
You gotta pay the price

I'm all grown up, the game is goin' my way
Grampa's good advice still holds today
Hey, when I get frisky I gotta play

Why not?
I'm hot
Jackpot-tonight!

When you gamble with love, you spin the wheel
Cross your fingers, make your best deal
What you can't beg or borrow you gotta steal

Now a gamblin' man's gotta make ends meet
When the odds get even, they're tough to beat
But tonight I feel it, I'm on a winning streak

Why not? Why not?
I'm hot I'm hot
Jackpot-tonight! Jackpot-tonight!

Jackpot-tonight! !
