Coming around with a smile on the face
I always play straight
Never leave without a trace
I'm never too late
Trembling walls kick in your door
I make the lights turn off
Burn down your house
My will denied?
NOT!

The type you represent
Always something fishy 'bout everything
An opportunity
To expose anything but yourself
I've seen you come and go
Waiting in the wings
You're breeding a constant flow
Overhearing the bell when it rings
It will ring, it will ring, but you won't hear a thing
You will learn that this time it is your turn to sing

WE'RE WAITING PLAY YOUR ACE!

Coming around with a smile on the face
I always play straight
Never leave without a trace
I'm never too late
Trembling walls kick in your door
I make the lights turn off
Burn down your house
My will denied?
FUCK OFF OR FIGHT!
