Follow your own beaten path
Wander where you can't be grabbed
Be aware of hidden dangers
And don't you go talkin' to strangers

Babe...

Travel on the midnight road
Ramble where the wind don't blow
Be aware of hidden dangers
And don't you dare go unto strangers

Babe...

In these raging days and nights
Look upon what's black and white
And don't you go talkin' to strangers

Babe...

Take leave of what's behind you
Go where no one will find you
Be aware of hidden dangers
And don't you go runnin' to strangers

Babe...

Babe...

Babe...
