You always say the things I can believe in Always say the things I wanna hear
I believe them all, the stories short and tall
I believe you, yeah I believe you

You give me love, when love is all I need to live
You gave your word, when words were just superlative
When I was blind, you came and opened up my eyes
Now I feel I can believe in anything
You taught me how to fly on broken wings, yeah

Always do the things I can depend on Always there every night and day
Every time I've fallen down, you've always been around
You lift me up again to set me straight again

Yeah, you give me love when love is all I need to live
You gave your word, when words were just superlative
When I was blind, you came and opened up my eyes
Now I feel I can believe in anything
You taught me how to fly on broken wings, yeah

Sometimes I find myself on my own
And can't find the road that leads me back home
But you made me believe I can do anything
Even fly on broken wings

Oh, you give me love, love, love, when love is all I need to live
You gave your word, words were just superlative
When I was blind, you came and opened up my eyes
Now I feel I can believe anything
You taught me how to fly on broken wings, yeah
You taught me how to fly, yeah, on broken wings
