Valerie was such a honest gal
Always giving her body out
To anyone who'll listen to the reasons
Why her soul is dimmed

After every word, I heard enough
I turned away, turned her out
She ran out on the rail of the balcony
As if to say, hey look at me

Everybody's looking
And everyone could see
That's wish dead, her hands slipped and
As she fell, twisted and flipped, she said

Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live

Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late

Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live

She landed on a car and her head was split
She had broken her back and her lower lip
But they put her back together and said she'd live
She did, now see there's a point here

Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live

Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live, it's too late
Hey, wait I wanna live

Hey, wait I wanna live

Hey, wait I wanna live
Hey, wait I wanna live
Hey, wait I wanna live
