Inside her feeble mind
She is spinning out of time
Like a hunter who is blind my Clementine

Beside her velvet nest
She humiliates the best
Could not take no more I guess of my valentine

Chorus:
Valentine-I killed my valentine
And I laughed until I cried
For my valentine

Valentine-I killed my valentine
And I am proud to do the time
For my valentine

Beneath her bloody skirt
She does most of her work
Laughing while your hurt
For Clementine

In the middle of every dream
Is a lie that holds the key
To free you from all you think you need
Like Clementine
