What if the world we knew was over?
What if the stars came tumbling down?
Where would we be without tomorrow?
Stranded on an island in the dark
Never understanding who we are

Shine like the sun in my sky
Live like you've just come alive
Moments appear and they vanish too fast
So I'm holding onto you as if we were
The last two on earth

Where is your heart and does it lead you?
Where is your mind, what makes it grow?
Does what you feel connect me to you
When the winter of your love is in control
And your doubt has left a hole in your soul

Shine like the sun in my sky
Live like you've just come alive
Moments appear and they vanish too fast
So I'm holding onto you as if we were
The last two on earth

Are you there?
Anywhere?
If our dreams were shattered
Would it matter
Change the way you see
Would you still reach out for me?

So I'm holding onto you as if we were
The last two on earth

Shine like the sun in my sky
Live like you've just come alive
Moments appear and they vanish too fast
So I'm holding onto you as if we were
The last two on earth

What if the world we knew was over?
