Have you ever dreamed of life in the first degree?
Do you want to take a bite? Well come with me!
I can tell you of a way to get together, forever
Your once upon a dream
Is waking on the silver screen,,,

And The Blood Club's Here to stay, by and by
The Blood Club's Here to stay, will never die!
Aunt Annabelle was a silly girl
She dipped her hands in Lie
But the Blood Club's Here to stay
Oh my...

Summer days are turning quickly into summer nights
Busy bodies going over to the campfire light
To pulverize a mind the tools are getting better then ever

It's judgment them by the frame
To watch them flicker their souls away...

And the Blood Club's Here to stay, by and by
The Blood Club's Here to Stay, will never die!
Aunt Annabelle was a silly girl
She dipped her hands in Lie
But the Blood Club's here to stay
Oh my....

Gutted hearts will never listen
Unless it's on their television
Blood Club, Hey, Hey, Hey, Hey

And if they want a moral lesson to Alleviate the nervous tension:
"The Blood comes out
And you're OK
It's only just a rainy day"

CHORUS
