One day gonna dream about me baby
The moon and the stars up in the sky
One day gonna dream about me baby
Comin' home to you every night

Back when I was 17
I was chasing this beauty queen
Lovely as you would believe
But as clean as I could be
She would see right through me
Down to the dirt in my bones
Then she'd walk away
Holding hands with some Brandon boy
And I'd turn away and sigh
Knowing down inside that
One of these days you're gonna see me again

One day gonna dream about me baby
The moon and the stars up in the sky
One day gonna dream about me baby
Comin' home to you every night

Damnit just the other day
I was stopped just west of town
Where a beautiful girl was drivin' around
Boy she looked so lovely with her ragtop down
And when I saw her I saw you
And through all the diamonds
All the pearls that make up that girl's world
I could see it in a stare
She can't bear to be in that paradise anymore

One day gonna dream about me baby
The moon and the stars up in the sky
One day gonna dream about me baby
Comin' home to you every night

Through all the diamonds
All the pearls that make up that girl's world
I could see it in a stare
She can't bear to be in that paradise anymore

One day gonna dream about me baby
The moon and the stars up in the sky
One day gonna dream about me baby
Comin' home to you every night
One day gonna dream about me baby
The moon and the stars up in the sky
One day gonna dream about me baby
Comin' home to you every night

Just wait and see baby
You're gonna want me
You're drivin' off now
But, you're gonna want me
One, two, three, yeah
