I've been around the world once or twice
I've had a lot of loves in my life
But none could compare to the fullness of love that I've found in you

And timeless the moments we share
Whenever in need you were there

I ask the heavens to send me an angel and that's what you are

You are my morning
You are my night
You are the thought when I open my eyes
You are the reasons that birds do sing
I see you're more,... You're my everything

You are the one til death do us part
You are the lifeline straight to my heart
You are the sunshine after the rain
Baby you're more,... You're my everything

And all of my dreams were you
Now all of my dreams have... come true
No one could ever tell me that life could be better baby, than loving you

You are the reason I live
And I promise always, to give My heart, my soul, the last breath that I breathe will be for you

Because you are my morning
You are my night
You are the thought when I open my eyes
You are the reason birds do sing
I see you're more,... You're my everytrhing

You are the one, til death do us part
You are the lifeline straight to my heart
YYou are the sunshine after the rain

Baby you're more,... You're my everything

You know the minutes seem like hours when we're apart
And I just never know what to do

And I know how things will end
But girl I know when I wake my day starts loving you

You are my morning
You are my night
You are the thought when I open my eyes
You are the reason birds do sing
I see you; re more,... You're my everything

You are the one til death do us part
You are the lifeline straight to my heart
You are the sunshine after the rain
Baby you're more,... you're my everything
