With every beat in my heart, with every breath that I take I'm gonna try to forget you.
Every time I wisper your name,
I'm caught in the pain,
Can't believe that I left you

The way that we laughed
Your fooling prare
Reminds of the way how I feel
How could I, how could I walk away

Chorus
Most of the time,
I think I love you
Most of the time
You drive me wild
Going out of my mind
I can't live without you,
there's something about you, baby
Most of the time

Cheating is a game I won't play, so when I gave you my heart,
I thought we both made a promise
Even though I'm so far away,
If I hear your voice,
You'll know I come back tomorrow

The way that we laughed
Your fooling prare (?)
Reminds of the way how I feel
How could I, how could I walk away

Chorus

How am I supposed to know
Is it wise to let you go?
It's over, is it over

Most of the time
you're the one that I want

Most of the time
you're the one that I need ooohoh, can't love without you
there's something about you, baby

Most of the time,
I think I love you
Most of the time
You drive me wild
Going out of my mind
I can't live without you,
there's something about you, baby
