Gary Barlow

You're everything I ever wanted and more,
You're the girl that I've needed for so long.
I think I'm old enough to know the reason
I feel the way I do now,
In my own words this love is meant to be.
It's in your eyes each time you're listening to me,
I'm saying things I've never said before,
And so naturally I'm coming back for more.
There's a reason why this love is changing my life,
You're everything I ever wanted and more.
You're in my mind in my heart in my soul,
Each time I think about reason, my work, losing time.
I just think about you and leave responsibility behind.
My day it opens with your head on my shoulder,
I love to kiss, touch, I love to hold you.
Our time it moves so fast,
every hour's a second till at last,
We will sleep one night and that night is forever.
You're everything I ever wanted and more,
You're in my mind, in my heart, in my soul,
Each time I think about reason, my work, losing time,
I just think about you and leave responsibility behind.
There's a reason why this love is changing my life,
You're everything I ever wanted and more,
You're in my mind, in my heart, in my soul,
Each time I think about reason, my work, losing time,
I just think about you and leave responsibility behind.
