Will you say that we can love... love each other? I'll cover your lips
Close your eyes and give me a sinful kiss

We can love... love each other surely, stabbing into the nape of your neck
Close your eyes and give me a sinful kiss

I can't ever return again, but that's okay

I stare into the middle of the night and drink my wine dry

We'll love... love each other more, seeming to go mad in our intense thirst
Close your eyes and give me a sinful kiss

Your scent drives me mad
I wake up in the middle of the night and drink insanity
and love dry

Come here into my arms, "The darkness over there is bitter"
You'll get confused and waver It'll turn eternal before long, "The darkness over here is sweet"
I'll pierce you deeply

Your scent drives me mad
I wake up in the middle of the night and drink insanity
and love dry

Come here into my arms, "The darkness over there is
bitter"
You'll get confused and waver It'll turn eternal before long, "The darkness over here is
sweet"
I'll pierce you deeply

Come here into my arms, "The darkness over there is
bitter"
You'll smile a little With this, it'll turn eternal, "The darkness over here is sweet"
I'll pierce you deeply
