Up here in this cold dark room just staring at the ceiling Been laying here for so damn long my heart has lost all feeling

You left me for no reason said they're be no compromise

I didn't want to believe it no until I looked into your eyes
I'd be a dead dead man If looks could kill

Now we've been together baby such a long long time I make one little mistake you say it's the end of the line
You know that I love you baby I wouldn't tell you no lies I guess that don't count for much from the look in your eyes

I'd be a dead dead man If looks could kill

Chorus:

I know it wasn't right But baby it was just one night
I think we'll both agree It was an awful sight to see Sex drugs your mom and me

Home alone taken a number kicking back and watching some tube

When she stopped by just to say high took a hit off my dube

A nickel bag and twelve pack later you started looking mighty fine

I was impressed when you tore off that dress said lets have a good time

I'd be a dead dead man If looks could kill

A little strange hard to explain when you walked through that door

How could that be when you're here with me passed out on the floor

I never knew there were two of you damn baby what a surprise

But I'm Long since sober and I'll never get over that look in your eyes

I'd be a dead dead man If looks could kill

Chorus:

I know it wasn't right But baby it was just one night
I think we'll both agree It was an awful sight to see
Sex drugs your mom and me
