The rain keeps falling down

Shelter me, I'm wet

Sacred heart is burning

There's a princess in my arms

I don't want to waste away tonight

A starlight face, a party

Like some time to figure out a link to your eyes

And to your mind

I wanna be alone this evening

Too much to hide, don't want the world to see me

Wait till I'm whole and find a place in the sun

And never pick up the phone

My friend keeps stalling

He is restless, he is scared

Lonely heart it turning,

Smell the sweetness in the air

(PRE-CHORUS)

(CHORUS X2)

Wait till I'm whole and find a place in the sun

And never pick up the phone

Hey
