All of me
Please take all of me
'Cause you are all I see
Everything to me

When you're gone
I am lost
I want to be forgiven
But I am not
And if I hurt your feelings
I will stop
So please don't turn away from me
And have a little faith now

'Cause baby you were there
You always seemed to care for me
And this is where I belong
I never was aware
And suddenly it came to be
And this is what I've become
Opened up my eyes
And made me realize
That you would take all of me

Please take all of me yeah,
'Cause you are all I see
My blue-eyed ocean breeze

When it all falls apart
I want to live forever
Don't we all
It's not like we don't ever get along
Please don't turn away from me
Have a little faith now

'Cause baby you were there
You always seemed to care for me
And this is where I belong
I never was aware
And suddenly it came to be
And this is what I've become
Opened up my eyes

And made me realize
That you would take all of me

Miss you all the time
Underneath a stormy sky
You take away the rain
And leave me with a sunny day
Stay here by your side
And never let you go now

'Cause baby you were there
You always seemed to care for me
I never was aware
Opened up my eyes
And made me realize

Please take all of me yeah,
'Cause you are all I see

Everything to me
