I keep on changing
I've been forgiven for my crimes
And I miss you, oh I miss you
I know it's crazy
There is so much sacrifice
And I wish that I could be there every night

I just want to say
I'm not far away
And you know I'm coming back for more

You make me want to change
And never mind the games we play
You know I'll always find a way
So don't you cry
My black butterfly

Sacred
You are the apple of my eye
And I want to stay beside you every night
You know we made it
We faced the challenge of our lives
And it can't be bittersweet without the fight

I just want to say
You make it all okay
I never wanted anyone like this before

You make me want to change
And never mind the games we play
You know I'll always find a way
I remember when my life was full of pain
But I am yours and you are mine
Baby, we got all this time
All this time
My black butterfly

This is all I do, I keep holding on
And I see what's in the way
I can't erase all my mistakes
It's not up to you, we are both involved
And our love is so bizarre

Am I standing in the way?
Or do you wish that I would change?

You make me want to change
And never mind the games we play
You know I'll always find a way
I remember when my life was full of pain
But I am yours and you are mine
Baby, we got all this time
So don't you cry
My black butterfly

Baby, just close your eyes
My black butterfly

We got all this time
My black butterfly
