Do you remember all our love
Did you get back from what you gave
I see some symptoms of a past that you forgave
You never were expendable
You always made me feel alive
And now we're in the middle of A transition in our lives

A change of pace could really do some good
She's leavin' an empty case which you're bringing back
the show
I'm leaving now

Wake up and see the places
All you got and all you take
You don't have to fall to pieces
You have to prove it
Make up your pretty faces
It's a lovely trip, a lovely place
You got one life here to make it for the movies

Do you feel singled out
Do you feel less than all the rest
You know it's interchangeable
The spotlight and the pain
I wanna get on top of this
I wanna build that trust again
And if I give it all I've got I'm sure you'd do the same

A change of pace could really do some good
She's leavin' an empty case which you're bringing back
the show
I'm leaving now

Wake up and see the places
All you got and all you take
You don't have to fall to pieces
You have to prove it
Make up your pretty faces
It's a lovely trip, a lovely place
You got one life here to make it for the movies

I cannot face the fear in this
I see a place for you and I
And we can make the most of it
'Cause our passion never dies
And if you don't believe in me
I'll choose the path and change your mind
And you can take me to your room
Or wherever you may hide

A change of pace could really do some good
She's leavin' an empty case which you're bringing back
the show
I'm leaving now

Wake up and see the places
All you got and all you take
You don't have to fall to pieces
You have to prove it
Make up your pretty face
It's a lovely trip, a lovely place
You got one life here to make it for the movies

For the movies
For the movies
