Beneath the white fire of the moon
Love's wings are broken all too soon
We never learn
Hurt together
Hurt alone

Don't you sometimes wish your heart was made of stone?

We turn the wheel and break the chain
Put steel to steel and laugh at pain
Where dreamers and castles are made of sand
The road to Eden's overgrown.

Don't you sometimes wish your heart was made of
stone?

Look at the headlines!
Big crowd at the crazy house
Long queue for the Joker's shoes
Ten rounds in the ring with love
Do you lose and win or win and lose

Sweet rain like mercy in the night
(lay me down wash away the sorrow)
Caress the world and set it right
(lay me down show me your tomorrow)

Summer tears, winter and the moment flown

Don't you sometimes wish your heart was made of
stone?
Mercy, mercy! Wish your heart was a heart of stone!

Get the picture!
No room for the innocent
Peak season in Lonely Town
Knocked out of the ring by love are you down and up or up and down?

I asked the river for a sign

(in the dream we go on together)
How long is love supposed to shine?
(In a dream diamonds are forever)
But you and I
We hurt together
Hurt alone

Don't you sometimes wish your heart was made of
stone?
Mercy, mercy! Wish your heart was a heart of stone!
(In a heart of stone, you'll be well protected)
Don't you sometimes wish your heart was made of
stone?
(In a heart of stone, you'll be well connected)
Mercy, mercy! Wish your heart was a heart of stone!
(In a heart of stone, you'll be well protected)
Don't you sometimes wish your heart was made of
stone
(In a heart of stone, you'll be well connected)â€¦
