Get off my shoulders, I told you to stay away
You're still a big part of me
Dance with delusional angels of sin
Kill false demons, you might kill false angels too
That's not what we wanna do

Together as one, we do as were told
Living together and fighting as one

Rejecting what's good with so called evil included
The dominant mind will prove you all blind
Finding the balance to leave you behind
I've learned so far controlling all the dark
Evelyn visions in the sky
All on my shoulder, all in my mind

I still hear you sing, my sweet love Evelyn
In fact I'm so cold, but I made up my mind
To see where it will lead
In fact I'm so lonely I

Stay away, you're still a big part of me
Dance with delusional angels of sin
Kill false demons, you might kill false angels too
That's not what we wanna do

Evelyn visions in the sky
All on my shoulder, all in my mind

I still hear you sing, my sweet love Evelyn
In fact I'm so cold, but I made up my mind
To see where it will lead
In fact I'm so lonely I

Don't listen to all this bullocks
There's nothing on either shoulder
Spreading the fire fever into something more that needs ya
Maybe you fall forever and maybe we die together

Angel Evelyn I die

I still hear you sing, my sweet love Evelyn
In fact I'm so cold, but I made up my mind
To see where it will lead
In fact I'm so lonely I
