Did You see that I was hurt?
Did You know that You had left me crying there?
Now I?m holding all Your words
Close till You feel this pain too, yeah

You live on so unaware
While I thought somehow this hate would heal me
But this hate is never ending and it?s only killing me
Oh, sweet revenge, you lied again

I find I can?t get free
Till I release this vengeance that I seek
Forgive You, the only thing
I wanna live, I?m ready to be free, to be free

Maybe You?ve been wounded too
Maybe all this is Your self protection
And all the hurts You thought were hidden
Are the ones now hurting me
So, who will make this patter end?

I find I can?t get free
Till I release this vengeance that I seek
Forgive You, the only thing
I wanna live, I?m ready to

Break these chains
Won?t see this through
?Cause setting You free
Will mean my freedom too, freedom too, oh

I find I can?t get free
Till I release this vengeance that I seek
Forgive You, the only thing
I wanna live, I?m ready to be free, to be free
