i have come so far-
from a wheelchair-
to walking away-
it must be fate-
the doctors to me-
that i may never walk
and here i am now,
i'm walking away-

Chorus: And my friends cry-with tears of joy-

knowing thati will return-
their love and hope is what i have,
and they know that she is gonna be back but she's going to spread her wings to fly, there is no need to cry because tonight she's going to take her good-bye flight-
