An' now we're one and I love you so
Hold me tight, never let me go
Make the feeling run up my spine
You know I'm yours and you are mine

Now that we are married, baby
We don't have to worry
Now we're one

An' now we're one and a-you're my bride
We don't have to run and hide
Every time I wanna hold your hand
Afraid someone won't understand

Now that we are married, baby
We don't have to worry
Now we're one

Well, I wanna jump to the moon and yell out loud
I feel like I'm walking on a eighteenth cloud
We'll put all our fears and cares behind
Ever since we heard the wedding bells chime

An' now we're one and I love you so
Hold me tight, never let me go
Make the feeling run up my spine
You know I'm yours and you are mine

Now that we are married, baby
We don't have to worry
Now we're one

Yeah, I wanna jump to the moon and yell out loud
I feel like I'm walking on a eighteenth cloud
We'll put all our fears and cares behind
Ever since we heard the wedding bells chime

An' now we're one and a-you're my bride
We don't have to run and hide
Every time I wanna hold your hand
Afraid of no one gonna understand

Now that we are married, baby
We don't have to worry
Now we're one

Now we're one
Now we're one
